Back to School Night Revisited

Last week we tried something different at CES: a virtual Back to School Night. Almost 100 families took this new step with us and, despite a few technical issues, the night was a success. We were also able to distribute over $500 in gift cards to families whose names were pulled from our 'wheel of fortune'. These are unique times, but we as a school are committed to staying connected with each of our families as we continue to prioritize our students' safety and success!

Picture Day at CES

Tomorrow we will be hosting Picture Day at CES! We have put many precautions in place so, as our students are able to get their pictures taken, our families can rest assured that we're not losing sight of our first mission: doing all that we can to keep our students and staff safe and healthy. Please send those picture forms back tomorrow!

Art at Home

The Grand Mesa Arts and Events Center (GMAEC) has partnered with numerous outstanding organizations to sponsor student art and activity packets. These free packets can be picked up at GMAEC (mask required) immediately with new packets being released periodically! Pick one up!

Missing Books

With the 2019-20 school year ending rather abruptly, we are still missing approximately 120 books – at a cost of over $2,000. We will be sending home notices for missing books – please help us locate and return these books as soon as possible. If the books are lost, we will ask that you pay for the book.

Helping Cope with Grief

The Learning Council and HopeWest are teaming up to present a virtual workshop for adults with children and adults working with children who are experiencing grief. These workshops will be taking place October 14th, 21st and 28th and will be held in a virtual Zoom meeting. To register, please visit <http://www.thelearningcouncil.org> and for any questions, contact Carrie Bauer (874.0628).
